IMPORTANT:

1. Have this letter signed at any Notary's office.
2. Indicate the VALID residence document you hold, whether a temporary or permanent residence visa.
3. State in the same letter all the children you want to enter Chile. If you don't want to reunite with your spouse or civil partner, do not include him/her in the letter.

ANNEX:

Regulations: Decree-law 1094 of 1975, Act on Aliens and its Regulations; Executive Decree No. 597, both issued by the Ministry of Homeland Affairs and Public Security.

REMARKS:

The family reunion visa has a one-year validity, extendable for one additional year, according to the rules on temporary residence.

The cost of the visa is US$25 (twenty-five US dollars).

The applicant must establish his residency by submitting the documentation issued by the Aliens and Migration Division, Ministry of Homeland Affairs and Public Security, the relevant Provincial Governor's Office or the relevant Chilean Consulate.

The temporary residence visa must be stamped unto the passport and be valid for at least 6 months or with a permanent residence certificate (sic). In both cases, a copy of a valid Aliens Identity Card must be attached.

The documents must be certified before a Chilean Notary Public and be attached to the application.

Evidence of the family relationship will consist in a certificate of marriage and/or of birth of the daughter or son, as appropriate, issued by the competent authority in Haiti, legalized by the Haitian Ministry of Justice and Ministry of Foreign Affairs and valid for a maximum term of 90 days as from the date of legalization by the Haitian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
